

EMERGENCIES HAPPEN

Are you Ready, Detroit?

Free Preparedness Classes and Emergency Alert Radios for Detroit Residents

Detroit Homeland Security is providing eight 90-minute Preparedness, First Aid and CPR courses at the below dates & times.

- 8/25/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
MSU Detroit Welcome Center @ 3408 Woodward Ave.
- 8/31/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
Southwestern District @ 4700 W. Fort
- 9/8/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
St. Andrews & Benedict Church
- 9/13/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
Butzel Recreation Center @ 7737 Kercheval
- 9/15/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
Central District DPD @ 7310 Woodward
- 9/20/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
Northwest Activities Center @ 18100 Meyers
- 9/22/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
St. John Conner Creek @ 4777 E. Outer Drive
- 9/28/2011 • 6:30 - 8 pm
Adams Butzel Recreation Center @ 10500 Lyndon

(Classes are limited to 50 students per session)

To RSVP or more information, contact the Community Access Center
224-3450

The outline of the course will be as follows:

Preparedness Content:

1. Build a Kit, Make a Plan, and Be Informed
2. How to prepare for and respond to a power outage and a fire
3. What items should be in a preparedness kit

First Aid Content:

1. How and when to call 911
2. How to care for a conscious choking adult
3. How to perform Bystander CPR
4. How to recognize and care for a heart attack

Alert Works EAR-10 All Hazard Radio Instruction:

1. How and why the radio should be used
2. Instructions on programming the radio and responding to alerts

American Red Cross

City of Detroit • Dave Bing, Mayor

